ABOUT GOA

Goa is a state of India, on the country's southwestern coast. It is located about 250 miles (400 km) south of Mumbai (Bombay). One of India's smallest states, it is bounded by the states of Maharashtra on the north and Karnataka on the east and south and by the Arabian Sea on the west. The capital is Panaji (Panjim). Formerly a Portuguese colony till 1961, Goa attained statehood in 1987.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

SES's Sridora Caculo College of Commerce and Management Studies, reaccredited by NAAC with 'B' grade, was established in June 1991. It is located at Mapusa, which is 15 km from Panaji, the capital of Goa. The Institution is a part of one of the oldest educational societies in Goa, namely, Saraswat Education Society (established in 1911) and is affiliated to Goa University. The institution takes immense pride in the fact that it is considered among the pioneers in Commerce and Management Education in Goa. The College offers B.Com., BBA and BCA programmes. The College has organised one national and two international conferences in Physical Education in association with National Association of Physical Education and Sports.
